

Money Central (Redmond, WA) (Internet) 12/05/07

(Impressions: 6,297,330)

Grossman hires trio of experts for Arizona " Grand Resort facelift"

Money Central (Redmond, WA) via eClip 12/05/2007 Source Website:news.moneycentral.msn.com All bizjournals.com news Richard Behr, who recently oversaw a $9 million resort renovation in California, and Colby Hutchinson, who comes from a PGA Skins host course in Palm Springs, are returning to Phoenix to take on a $52 million project at Arizona Grand Resort along, with former New York chef Robert Graham. Grossman Co. Properties founder Sam Grossman announced the trio's hiring Wednesday for the project at the resort, water park and golf course located at the base of South Mountain Preserve. Behr oversaw renovation at Miramonte Resort and Spa in Calif., but got his start at The Phoenician in Phoenix. Hutchinson previously served as director of sales and marketing for Indian Wells Golf Resort, but before that was based at sister courses Stonecreek Golf Club and The Legend at Arrowhead in Phoenix. Chef Graham comes to Arizona Grand Resort with a résumé that includes studies in Sydney and Bali and jobs as sous chef at Tavern on the Green in New York City, executive chef at Uptown Bistro in Denver, and executive chef at The Ritz Carlton in Phoenix. The renovation includes guest suite enhancements that total $32,000 each and the addition of luxury villas that will be available for purchase. Copyright 2007 bizjournals.com Audience 6297330 provided by Nielsen/NetRatings